

The HOPE MOVEMENT

Mission and Vision:

The mission of the Hope Movement is to guide women recovering from an addictive lifestyle to become fully-devoted followers of Jesus as they discover life in abundance, as God intended (John 10:10). The Hope Movement recognizes and assists in providing such needs as a safe living environment, gainful employment, life-skills training, and Christ-centered counseling, with discipleship training to follow Jesus as the core of the Hope Movement.

Our vision for helping women recovering from addiction is Movement from addictive lifestyles into productive citizenship through Christ-centered community reintegration.
